

In order to preserve the independence of American news and information I do not support the lifting of the current ban on cross-ownership of media.